

WAM English

"ARABCOM 2006" Telecom summit in Dubai next Tuesday

Dubai, 8 April, 2006 (WAM)--- Arabcom 06, The 9th International Telecom Development Summit for the Arab states, will kick off on 11th April at the Emirates Towers Hotel, Dubai..

The conference will be held under the Patronage and in the presence of Sultan Saeed Al Mansouri, Minister of Government Sector Development, and in the presence of Ministers of Telecom, GSM operators CEO's, Carriers, Service providers, and Telecom industry Leaders..

The conference's presentations will be unique as delegates will hear Operators addressing critical issues, and Industry leaders talking about Next Generation Networks, Fixed Mobile Convergence, 3G developments in the Arab world, Emerging Broadband access Technologies, Enabling Next Generation Networks, Delivering Triple Play over NGN and 3D Animated Mobile Messaging and Content..

In its 9th year running, ARABCOM 2006, The 9th International Telecom Development summit for the Arab states, will focus on "Next Generation Networks" and will analyze the most up to date topics in the industry, Katia Tayer CEO of Arabcom Group stated..

More than 400 participants from 50 countries are expected at the event, and the accompanying exhibition will showcase state-of-the-art telecom technologies, Tayer added..

Keynote speakers include Telecom Ministers, CEOs from top GSM operators, wireline carriers, wireless providers, equipment manufacturers, content providers. The list includes Osman Sultan CEO EITC/Du, Ghazi Atallah Managing Director of Cisco Systems, Dr. Walid Moneimne Senior VP EMEA Nokia Networks and Khalifa Al Farah Manager Engineering Mobile Systems Etisalat..

WAM-MYS 16 19 CCCCQQ

© Copyright 2006 United Press International, Inc. All Rights Reserved